What is Hackathon 1.0?

BSKG Hackathon 1.0 is the first hackathon event that the company has organized that will run for one whole day. The goal is to help educate IT students and fresh graduates on practical development skills and expand their professional portfolios. We believe that hackathon is the best environment for the IT talents to familiarize new technologies, techniques and practices. Also, having mentors to teach and inspire the hackers to design, develop, and demo their skills. And not to forget, having fun while learning!
